TO STAND TOGETHER, COME ON BOARD

For more than 250 years, the Board of Deputies has been the enduring voice of the British Jewish Community. It has defended it, spoken up for it, fought for it and protected its interests.

Now, with historically high levels of antisemitism, this voice is needed more than ever.

The Board speaks for the entire community, talking to the Government, Opposition, other authorities, the media, faith groups and civil society organisations.

Our credibility comes from our democracy – representing synagogues and organisations across the country – as well as by our funding model: we ask synagogue members to pay a modest annual Communal Contribution of £35.

We work for the community in 4 main areas:

CHALLENGING ANTISEMITISM

Confronting it from wherever it originates, including mobilising political support for our students on university campuses

SUPPORTING ISRAEL

We work hard to get Israel a fair hearing in the media and in Government - a pressing need in times of conflict; and we campaigned to get terrorist groups like Hezbollah, Hamas and Hizb Ut-Tahrir proscribed

EDUCATION

Through our school inspection service, Pikuach, we ensure high standards of Jewish education

LIFECYCLE EVENTS

We defend Jewish interests and respect for Judaism across lifecycle events, defending Shechita, Brit Milah and ensuring Jewish traditions relating to deaths and burials
